Please fill out this form completely. An incomplete form will delay your request. We will contact you once your form has been reviewed and we have made our decision to include your group in our partner's request program. We solely base our decision on God's leading.

The Dove Nest, Inc. will make every effort to fill your request for religious materials from our inventory. We will attempt to secure donations of requested items not in our inventory. All of our donations of religious materials are made by Christian organizations, but it is not possible to guarantee denomination-specific materials. Donations are limited to non-consumable worship materials. We cannot guarantee your request will be filled at all, nor can we guarantee a shipping or delivery date. If you have a request, please prayerfully bring your request before God. It is through God we can find the resources to fill these requests and we need your prayers.

REQUESTS FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE WILL BE DENIED.

All requested material will be shipped using the most economical common carrier. There is no shipping charge for requested materials less than 20 pounds shipping weight. Requests that create over 20 pounds of shipping weight must have shipping prepaid in US funds.

Please understand that a denial of assistance by the Dove Nest does not invalidate the value of your work. There are requests that we simply do not have the resources to accommodate.

We look forward to working with you and your church or ministry.
